THE RUIESTONE

JANUARY-FEBRUARY 2014

Baronial address

Greetings to the Barony of Western Seas!

This is the first time we will be Baron and Baroness for a year, and we are happy to be of service to you all. Many, many thanks go to our previous Baron and Baroness, Sir Edward of Castleguard and Mistress Kyrstyan de la Pool, who did a wonderful job throughout their reign.

We would like to thank everyone who came to the A&S Baronial in November and Castlenorth Fest in December. There was a good turnout at both events, and we so appreciate the extra efforts many people made, including setting up tents and pavilions, bringing food, being available for last-minute needs. We were also honored with many visiting peers at both events.

We would like to see more opportunities for learning new skills, either in arts or fighting, and are in the process of reorganizing the administration of the Barony to be in line with Kingdom and Corpora requirements.

We would be pleased to receive any recommendations you may have for Baronial level awards. We also need officers and deputies at all levels, so please consider volunteering for this. Officers' Meetings are open to everyone and are held the third Tuesday of every month, at 7:30 pm.

We look forward to seeing you at our events!

Hail to Caid and Western Seas!

Genevieve, Baroness

Richard, Baron

Peridot Isle pair honored at Caid Twelfth Night

By Mistress Raven of Heronsmarsh, Seneschal

It is with great joy that I wish to share wonderful news about two special people from the Canton of Peridot Isle in our beloved Barony of Western Seas.

The Honorable Lord William Walworth de Durham is the new Bard of Caid!

The Honorable Lady Una Logan is the new Kingdom Chirurgeon!

travelled to the Mainland for the Caid Twelfth Night. Lord William had decided to enter the Bard of Caid competition. Lady Una had been offered the position of Kingdom Chirurgeon, and was to be installed as a Kingdom Officer.

The Honorable Lady Una Logan was installed in her new position and presented with a Chain of Office and a Ring, tokens of her office. She had looked forward to saying her fealty oath to the King and Queen.

Poetry from the Bard of Caid

The following poem was written in the sonnet genre by THL William Walworth de Durham and submitted in the Bard of Caid competition:

A'isha's Poem The Spirit of Joy

The mundane world is called mundane for reasons obvious with heavy expectations – a jungle full of beasts.

So when we need resuscitation from all the stew and fuss, we join our fellow Scadians for tournaments and feasts –
and we find joy.

And there is a special Kingdom, where everyone's received with sharing, loving welcome, that warms and lives and grows.

Throughout the known world it's sure, the Kingdom of Caid

is where good gentles gather for fellowship that flows –
and spreads its joy.

The family that we choose is closer than of blood.

We laugh and love and lift each other up in never-ending stream

Where each small act of caring opens up a flood that washes over each of us; the spirit of the Dream – is making joy – is giving joy – is sharing joy.

The following limerick was written by THL William Walworth de Durham in the Bard of Caid competition, using the following three words: inspiration, romance, and jaunty.

There's a lady who gives inspiration
For romance is her inclination
Her demeanor is haughty
But her assets quite jaunty –
As least so far as we can see them.

Lord William Walworth de Durham entered the Kingdom Competition for the position of the Bard of Caid.

Lord William described his entries in the competition. He performed the song "Greensleeves," and told of the history of the song and its later transformation into the Christmas Carol, "What Child is This." Lord William then performed a song that he wrote in honor of King Patrick and Queen Kara, a piece entitled "Aisling," which means "The Vision" or "The Dream." Lord William also performed a sonnet which he wrote on the theme of "Joy." The final piece in the competition was to create a spontaneous composition using the words, "Romance, Inspiration, and Jaunty." Lord William said he composed both a bawdy limerick and a song.

When all was judged, the honor of being Bard of Caid was bestowed upon Lord William. He will hold the honor and title of Bard of Caid for the duration of one year.

After the competition, Lord William and Lady Una were invited to sit and dine with King Conrad II and Queen A'isha at the head table. What a wonderful way to end a very exciting day.

We can all be very proud of The Honorable Lord William and The Honorable Lady Una! Hip Hip, Huzzah! Three cheers for Lord William and Lady Una!

Greetings unto the Populace

From the Seneschal

Greetings!

I am honored to have been asked to assume the position of Seneschal of the Barony of Western Seas by our previous Baron and Baroness, Sir Edward of Castleguard and Mistress Kyrstyan de la Poole. I will endeavor to do my best to serve.

We have been asked by Kingdom to update records and bring the Barony into compliance with Kingdom requirements in order for us to maintain our status as a Barony. I thank each and every one of you for your understanding and your help as I attempt to gather the information required.

I am excited to see our newsletter, The Runestone, being revived in an electronic format thanks to the dedication and skill of Lady Viviana of Peridot Isle. We would appreciate receiving articles of interest about your groups, your projects, your persona, or anything within the scope of the SCA.

I look forward to working with our Baron Sir Richard and Baroness Mistress Genevieve, and with the Officers and all of you as we move onward and create another page in the history of Western Seas.

Long live Western Seas! Long Live Caid!

Mistress Raven of Heronsmarsh

From the Chronicler

Greetings, and welcome to the first electronic version of The Runestone! It obviously differs quite a bit from the previous newsletter, which was beautifully produced for so many years by the hard-working and talented THL Criseyde Chantal of the Two Seas. (And may I add a heartfelt HUZDAH for all your years of service!)

To those who miss holding a printed copy, our apologies; due to printing costs, this is the trend of newsletters throughout the SCA. The start of a new chronicler's term seemed an appropriate time to transition to a new format.

It is my hope that this will prove to be a convenient way to connect our cantons, despite the watery miles that separate us. To that end, I hope to enliven future issues with more of your words and images. Please consider this an open invitation to think of The Runestone as your opportunity to share as well as learn. All input is welcome, from notice of upcoming events, to suggestions of story ideas, or your own creative works. (See guidelines, Page 6.)

I am extremely honored to be asked to serve our Barony in this fashion, and am truly looking forward to "meeting" some of you in these pages.

Yours in Service to the Dream,

Lady Viviana of Peridot Isle

The Origin of the Canton of Castlenorth

By Baroness Genevieve
la Minstrelle, O.L.

Once upon a time, a long, long, long time ago (somewhere between 1977 and 1979), there was a wee Barony of Western Seas that was led by Baron Lewis the Landless (our first Baron). Fighter practices were held at the University of Hawai'i Quad in Honolulu.

One (then) young man became interested in the fighting and showed up for practice, but ... lo! No one was there!

A quick call to Baron Lewis was made, who sadly said fighter practice wasn't happening any more; there just didn't seem like enough people were interested.

"But," he said, "there is a guy on the Windward side in Kahaluu who fights, maybe you could get together with him?"

And so, the lone fighter called this man, and they decided to meet at Castle High School in Kaneohe to practice there.

A third fighter joined them (he was Rob Stebbings, or Stebbenwulf).

Images courtesy of Baroness Genevieve la Minstrelle
ABOVE: Much business as well as good cheer was to be had at the January 2014 Castle-north Canton meeting. BELOW: Sir Marco created this plaque of the Castlenorth device.

Gradually, more people joined in the fun. Some of those folks include our beloved "Ogre" THLord Alistair Ian Campbell, Sir Taran Blackwolf, Baroness Talena, Sir Marco, Baron Claudius, Sir

Anton de la Mer, and Mistress Tetchubah.

As the practices were held at Castle High School, and "castle" sounded medieval, and the location was on the northern side of O'ahu ... the Canton of Castle-north was born!

That lone fellow in search of a fighting partner decided to stick around and call himself "Vernon the Nameless" aka "m'Lord Not Yet." One day the idea struck that he could, instead, become "Richard of Castle North."

And the fellow in Kahaluu who helped bring the Barony back on its feet? Why, none other than our good Sir Valeran!

This story was told to Baroness Genevieve by Baron Richard, who would like a disclaimer that it may not be totally correct, as it was sooooooo long ago. But, somewhere lurking about (if we can ever find it), the story is recorded in The History of Western Seas, also by Baron Sir Richard.

We are honored with special visitors arriving to our shores. Our lovely Baroness, Mistress Genevieve la Minstrelle, will be our guest of honor. Master Stefan of Cambrion and Lady Evelynne Merrymet, visiting from another Kingdom, have offered to teach dance and other A&S offerings. A potluck dayboard lunch will be offered at 12:30 p.m. Classes and children's games will be held throughout the afternoon. A potluck period-style feast will be held. THL Una will provide a meat dish main course for the evening meal.

This is a potluck event, with no site fee. This is a completely dry site. All will be asked to sign a waiver on check in. Please see Lord Tuathal Mac-Crimthainn, and get your site token after signing in. Help in set-up and clean-up will be greatly appreciated. Feast gear will be provided.

Castlenorth Campout Celebrating the Feast of St. Bridget

Friday, Feb. 7, at 9 a.m., to Sunday, Feb. 9, at 3 p.m.

Sponsored by Castlenorth at the Ho'omaluhia Botanical Garden (at the same pavilion as the December event), O'ahu

COST: $10 for the site and $5 for non-members, so if you are a non-member your total will be $15. Free for children 18 and under.

FACILITIES: The camp location is the same as the Dec. 8 event (the last pavilion at the end of the road). There are hot showers available (no individual stalls, just open area). Hibachis and campfires are permitted. This is a dry site. Please note that, as of Jan. 1, there is no smoking in all public areas – which includes the park. (Sorry!)

FOOD: Saturday's dinner is called a "feast," but we are making it a potluck to keep the cost down and make the entry fee affordable. Please know there are no cooking facilities at the pavilion area, but there are a couple of electrical outlets if you want to bring a small appliance.

With the exception of the potluck you are on your own for all food, so please plan accordingly. There is a shopping mall about two miles away, which includes take-out restaurants, Foodland, Denny's, Starbucks and McDonald's.

PARKING PASS FOR CAMPING: Sign in at the Visitor Center (about 1.5 miles in from the gate, on the right side). For Friday night, the office is also open between 5:30 and 6:30 p.m.

GATE TIMES: The gates are open and closed at weird times: open 9 a.m. to 4 p.m., open again from 5:30 p.m. to 6:30 p.m., then only leaving from 9 to 9:15 p.m. (This is why closing court will be in the afternoon.)

For people who want to avoid the hassle and want to stay late but not camp, you can park on Luluku Road and walk about a half mile to the fenced gate. Call somebody at camp to come and get you. Likewise, when you leave, somebody can drive you down to the fenced gate, and then you walk to Luluku Road.

Who is St. Bridget? (aka Brigid, Celtic Goddess of Fire and Water)

By Baroness Genevieve
la Minstrelle, O.L.

Bridget (Brigid, Brigit, Bride, Brid, c. 451-525) is known as one of the patron saints of Ireland, along with Patrick and Colomba. Her feast day is Feb. 1, which is also associated with the Celtic pagan festival of Imbolc, celebrating the middle of winter (with the hope and anticipation of the spring to come). She is the patroness of healing, music and divination (represented by water), smithcraft (represented by fire), and poetry (also represented by fire as in “fire of inspiration”).

As a Celtic goddess, she is one of three sisters, also named Brigit. These sisters are also associated with the Triple Goddess, which later was replaced by the Christian Trinity. Bridget was therefore one of the important means of crossovers from pagan to Christian

The Romans equated Brigantia with Minerva, a goddess of war, wisdom and crafts. There is evidence of this from a statue at Birrens in Dumfriesshire which shows her with Minerva's symbol of the Gorgon's head on her breast, a mural crown, a spear and the globe of victory.

— From www.brigitsforge.co.uk/brigitgoddess.html tradition. She is also represented by a white cow — at Imbolc, cows and ewes would have birthed their young and milk would be flowing. Milk was considered to be a sacred food, equivalent to the Christian communion.

As a Christian saint, she was Ireland's first nun and abbess of Kildare. She was known throughout the land for her ability to heal, powers of prophesy, and charity to the poor, with several stories about how food she gave away to others would be replenished.

She is symbolized by cows and sheep (birthing, nourishment from milk), owls (wisdom), snakes (healing), any aspect of fire, springs and wells.

St. Bridget's Cross is considered to be an important symbol of protection for the house from fire and evil, and is hung in many Irish kitchens for this purpose.

Teachers

Hailing from the Kingdom of Atlantia, Master Stefan of Cambion (O.P.) and Lady Evelynne Merymet will be teaching dances and Celtic knotwork. Also, in honor of St. Bridget, there will be a Poetry Contest led by Mistress Genevieve and background music of Tur-lough O'Carolan (1670-1738).

Master Stefan and Lady Evelynne have taught dances from several period genres, such as Italian 15c., Elizabethan, Arbeau 16c. French, and English Country dance. Master Stefan has also taught classes on the evolution of castle design, the Inns of Court, the historical background of the Battle of Hastings, design and construction of Viking dress, and the period English legal system.

Master Stefan has been in the SCA for 30 years, and Lady Evelynne about half that time.
